About this activity

Whether you're looking for a quirky souvenir, warmer layers or a novel from a local author there are a myriad of retail options in Jackson Hole. The Town Square in the heart of Jackson is the epicenter of shopping in Jackson. You'll find a handful of gift shops, designer boutiques, quaint shops, art galleries and more. Jackson is home to an abundance of locally owned shops, so you'll be excited to not only find the perfect item but also support our local business community.

Things might look a little different this year, so here are a few things to keep in mind:

- To avoid crowds on the Town Square or in stores, visit during weekdays and off-peak times.
- Some services like trying clothes on or sampling products may be limited or not available.
- Visitors are encouraged to call ahead to area Visitor Bureaus or the specific shop you intend to visit to learn of their specific restrictions and protocols, information on business hours and what is open and accessible.

Retail stores are utilizing signage, personal protective gear like masks at their entrances and limiting the number of patrons in a store. Each business will look different, but there are precautions each are taking to keep our community, and you, safe as well as things you can do to travel and enjoy your visit responsibly.

- Expect to be required to wear a mask and adhere to local ordinances.
- Most stores offer hand sanitizer upon entry and request that you use it throughout your visit in the store.
- Looking for something, but don't want to go in? Many shops offer curbside pickup, online ordering or purchases over the phone.
